FCSS/ParentLink Changes

Edson, Alberta, September 22nd, 2017 – A new Coordinator has joined the Town of Edson.

Sarah McDonald has been hired as the new FCSS/ParentLink Coordinator, and will be based out of the Family/ParentLink Centre in the Red Brick School. She is replacing the newly retired Carol Eberharter at the Centre.

Sarah moved to Edson just over 3 years ago from Ontario and comes with an educational background in Business and Early Childhood Education. She's been working with children and families in daycare and school settings.

Sarah says she is delighted to become a part of the FCSS/ParentLink team and get to know families and individuals that make up this welcoming community! She is also excited to network with community partners to build resources and programs for families in and around Edson.

Welcome Sarah!
